2. The first report, MPIC Review and Functional Flow, was prepared by to document their knowledge or current MPIC information processing activities and to describe current and projected information requirements. The second report, Conceptual Design and Functional Specifications, actually proposes a concept for an aric integrated information system. The third report, Program Implementation Plan, proposes a plan for implementation of Phases II through IV, including the timing and costing of tasks to be performed.

25X1A

I would like to note the urgency for approval of the contract for Phase II of the four-phase IIE development program. Funding of the program stopped with the conclusion of Phase I on 21 August 1966. It should also be noted that NPIC has insisted that assign to Phase II nine senior analysts whose abilities were demonstrated during Phase I. It will be difficult to retain these analysts if appreciable delays are encountered, since is desirous to re-staff for another automation study with the Library of Congress. 25X1A
